DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Inoue in U.S. Patent No. 4,386,248. Inoue has a wire electric discharge machine comprising an upstream wire guide (guide roller 8a in figure 1), a downstream wire guide (guide roller 8b), a wire guide turning unit having a first wire guide turning guide (element 8c) and a second wire turning guide (element 2), said second wire turning guide turning the wire turned by said first wire turning guide towards said downstream wire guide (see column 5, lines 20-53 and figure 1). Regarding claim 3, the stepper motor 17 can rotate the wire turning unit as desired (e.g. see column 6, lines 30-34).

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Inoue (248) in view of Kiyoshi et al. in U.S. Patent No. 4,803,326. Kiyoshi et al. teaches plural sets of a wire turning unit (e.g. see elements 18-21, and column 9, lines 20-29). It would have been obvious to adapt Inoue in view of Kiyoshi et al. to provide this to guide wire electrodes of varying shapes.

Art Unit: 1725

5. Claims 4-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

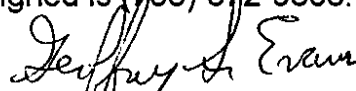

6. Claims 8-14 are allowed.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Inoue in Japan Patent No. 60-207,722, Fricker in U.S. Patent No. 4,376,241, Lodetti et al. in U.S. Patent No. 5,824,985 and Lodetti in U.S. Patent No. 4,431,896 have wire cutting electric discharge machines of interest.
